Cotton.

☞ We have received an invitation to attend the anniversary celebration of the Few Literary Society of Emory College, to be held on Friday, September the 29th. The orator is William H. La Prade, of Florida.

☞ Died, Suddenly in Hall county, on Sunday, without a struggle or pain, while on a visit to her friends, Mrs. Harriet Wilson, wife of Wyatt Wilson, of Gwinnett county. Mrs. Wilson was in her 62d year. She was an affectionate wife, a kind mother and an excellent neighbor. Eleven children and a grief-stricken husband mourn her loss.

A Correction.

In our mornings edition, one of the Agricultural items should have read as follows:

The circular of Smith, Edwards & Co., of Liverpool, holds out encouragement to planters. Rains and storms, and insects, may cut short the cotton crops; and this will cause the receipts to be not equal to the demand, consequently a high price will prevail. There are cotton, as well as money gamblers, and THE CONSTITUTION advises farmers to sell only a sufficiency of cotton to meet their "promises to pay," and then hold up the remainder of their crop for good prices. They ought to get them, and will if prudent.

About sixty dollars worth of valuables were taken from the residence of Dr. C. C. Schley by burglars on Tuesday night.—Savannah Advertiser.

Mrs. John H. Smith, of Valdosta, is dead. The receipt and shipment of cotton at Valdosta for year ending 31st of August, 1771, were 4,961 bales.—North Georgia Times.

The youngest child of Mr. Joseph Haward, of Columbus, died last Tuesday at the Chalybeate Springs. Mr. A. P. Watt, the well known proprietor of the Exchange Hotel in Montgomery, is dead.—Columbus Sun.

A number of valuable improvements are going on in Calhoun. A great deal of interest is being taken in Calhoun to insure the building of the North Georgia and North Carolina Railroad.—Calhoun Times.

Charles H. Williams, Esq., of Columbus, was married on the 20th to Miss Sallie Wilkins of the same city. On the same day Mr. Henry Hewes, of the above city, was married to Miss Mollie Gresham of the same place.—Columbus Enquirer.

A. Alpeorin Bradley has reached Savannah to participate in the coming elections. The total of deaths in Savannah for the week ending the 18th was 26. The new hall of Germania Fire Company was opened for the first time on Monday night.—Republican.

Lawrenceville is to have a new Court House. The corn crop of Gwinnett county will not be more than half an average crop; wheat one-fourth; oats one-tenth—hardly seed. The cotton crop depends upon the frost. If the fall should be favorable there may be a little more than half a crop of cotton.—Gwinnett Atlas.

Barnesville wants a guard house. The corn and potato crop in the vicinity of Barnesville promises to be a fine one. Nearly every mill-dam around the neighborhood of the above town has been washed away. Great complaint as to the saving of cotton. Many farmers think the cracked bolls must rot soon without sunshine.—Barnesville Gazette.

Mr. Albert Birdsong, of Macon, is lying at the point of death at Mrs. Freeman's. Macon has received a street railway car. Mr. Doc Ivy, of this city, shot his father-in-law, Mr. Williams, last Tuesday. The wound is in the thigh, severe but not fatal. Mayor Huff is negotiating for the services of Theodore Thomas' famous Orchestra during the State Fair week.—Telegraph and Messenger.

The eldest daughter of Judge H. M. Beach, of Bainbridge, died last Tuesday of congestion of the brain. Many of our farmers who are cultivating river lands had their crops damaged extensively by the late rise of the river. William Collier lost about eight hundred bushels of corn. The number of bales of cotton received at Bainbridge during the year ending 1st September, was 26,229.—Bainbridge Argus.

LAST STAGE OF CONSUMPTION.—One of John Robinson's enormous lions is in the last stage of consumption. There is a settled expression of melancholy in his countenance which augurs an early death, when his departed spirit will "flee into the mountains of Hepsidam, where the lion roareth and the whang-a-doodle mourneth for its first born."—Times.

The house of Mrs. Judge Speer was entered and robbed by a servant girl of many valuable articles last Sunday night. The girl has been arrested. The Spalding county teachers are to form a County Teachers' Association. Mr. George F. Westmoreland, of Senoia, is suffering from a severe attack of fever. The capital stock to begin with, $40,000, has been taken up in Griffin for the purpose of building a new hotel on the ground occupied at present by the Georgia Hotel. Griffin is to have a Young Mens' Christian Association.—Middle Georgian.

[CONDENSED FOR THE CONSTITUTION.]

The Second Fair of Nashville was a success. The gross receipts amounted to $1,500.—Banner.

Frank C. Turner, formerly an engineer on the East Tennessee and Virginia Railroad, is dead. A double-headed rattlesnake has been brought to this office.—Press and Herald.

Col. M. W. Clusky is engaged on an improved edition of his Political Text Book. Col. John A. McKinney, has brought to Nashville specimens of petroleum taken from Hawkins county.—Nashville Banner.

Mrs. Susan B. Anthony lectures in Memphis in October. She will be followed by Elizabeth Cady Stanton. Mrs. Jack Taylor, of Brownsville, was driving in a buggy near the railroad depot, when the horse became frightened and ran away. Mrs. Taylor endeavored to jump out, but was thrown out, her neck and both arms were broken and death was instantaneous. Horse thieves continue to carry on business in Shelby and adjoining counties.—Memphis Exchange.

Colonel Edwards, of Anderson county, made sixteen bushels of clover seed this year from less than ten acres of ground. George Collins, a snake charmer from Dickson county, is astonishing the people by his fearless handling of reptiles. Prof. Nicholson has been appointed a delegate from the Agricultural College of East Tennessee to the Agricultural Congress, which meets in Nashville in October. Tennessee has 20,000,000 acres of unimproved land.—Chronicle.

GLOVES.—Although some authors assert that gloves were used by the Chaldeans of old, yet the first distinct and reliable mention of them is made by Xenophon. He tells us that the Persians, not content with protecting their head and feet against the cold, also covered their hands with thick gloves. When speaking of Iberia, Homer relates that "he wore gloves on his hands to secure them from thorns." Varro, in his "De rerustica," remarks that themselves, when gathered by the naked hand, are better than those gathered with gloves." The learned grammarian, Athenæus, writing in the third century, speaks of a celebrated bon vivant who made point of coming to table in gloves, so as to handle and eat the meat while quite hot, thereby gaining the advantage of devouring more than the rest of the company.—Index.

UNDER THE HAMMER.

Several Delinquent Railroads Sold at Auction.

The State Commissioners Refuse to Confirm the Sale.

A large crowd of capitalists and representatives of railroads attended the sale of delinquent railroads on the eastern side of the capitol at noon yesterday.

The Knoxville and Charleston Railroad was knocked down by Auctioneer Dolin to the Blue Ridge Railroad, at $78,000; the Rogersville and Jefferson to the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railroad at $10,000; the Knoxville and Kentucky to W. B. Johnston and others at $300,000; and the Western and North Carolina to E. Simerly, on behalf of the stockholders, at $12,500.

Some very spirited bidding occurred between W. B. Johnson, of Macon, and J. H. James, of Atlanta, for the Knoxville and Kentucky Railroad, there being ten bids ranging from $100,000 to $300,000.

It was announced that the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad would probably be sold at 2 P. M., but upon the arrival of that hour it was determined by the Commissioners to postpone the hour to 3 P. M. to-day, with the intimation that it might be sold at that hour. The sale, we understand, depends upon the withdrawal of the certiorari and supersedeas granted to Davidson county, which is intimated as probable.

After the sale had taken place the Commissioners retired to the Comptroller's office, and after consultation refused to confirm the sale of the roads mentioned, on account of the poor prices obtained.

A modified decree was entered in the Chancery Court relative to the Memphis, Clarksville and Louisville Railroad, in which several points objectionable to the purchaser of that road (the Louisville and Nashville Railroad) are equitably settled. The result will be that the purchaser will turn over to the Comptroller $1,700,000, the minimum price fixed.—Republican Banner.

South Carolina News Items.

[CONDENSED FOR THE CONSTITUTION.]

Edgefield has had a $1,200 fire—Edgefield Advertiser.

Philip Epstein, of Columbia, had a painful operation of the eye performed on Monday. The eye was completely removed. Excavations for the basement of the new City Hall are progressing rapidly. The money drawer of Mr. James McKinney, of Columbia, was opened on Tuesday night, and robbed of $200, including a bag of gold, watch chain, ect. Marion wants a bank.—Daily Union.

New corn is selling at Marion Court House at $1 a bushel. W. B. Allgood, of Pickens, has taken from a single bee-gum six gallons and a quart of strained honey. Rice birds in swarms of thousands and of tens of thousands are in the rice fields of Georgetown county. The declaration of martial law in certain South Carolina counties hangs fire. Nearly all the cases under the Ku-Klux Act, tried before the United States Court at Greenville, resulted in the acquittal for a lack of proof satisfactory to the juries.—Lexington Dispatch.

One of "those enterprising merchants" who fled from Charleston when the fever was announced, left the following notice on the door of his abandoned domcile, where it remained until rescued by the Courier man. It puts his case to his grief-stricken customers thusly:

NOTE.

Not from fever dead,
Not from fever sick:
But from fright of fever I have fled.
Will return when all is over,
If from fright of fever I recover.

[Charleston Courier.

Alabama News Items.

[CONDENSED FOR THE CONSTITUTION.]

Steps are being taken to form a Dramatic Company in Montgomery.—State Journal.

A State Convention of Universalists will be held at Mussy Grove Church, Dale county, on the 20th October.—Henry County Register.

The survivors of the 20th Alabama Regiment are to have a re-union on the 18th day of October next, at Eutaw, Greene county.—Eutaw Whig and Observer.

Dr. J. G. Freeny's house, near Mt. Meigs, was struck by lightning last Thursday. It was saved, however, by the copper lightning rod attached to the building. The lightning rod was burnt and melted literally to atoms. The employes of the different railroads centering at Montgomery, received $48,000 for services for the month of August. Mr. A. P. Watt, of the Exchange Hotel, died on the 20th. For fifteen years he has conducted the Exchange Hotel. His disease was dropsy of the chest. The boll worm is destroying all the cotton now maturing in Marengo county. The same is true in regard to the crops of Lowndes and Montgomery counties.—Montgomery Advertiser.

Shame has no Blush.

Mr. Attorney General Akerman left Washington City, checked through for Atlanta, Ga., but somehow he has since turned up in Raleigh, where he is now assisting in one of the greatest historical spectacles known to the people of this country.

Over one hundred peaceful men are dragged from their homes and carried to Raleigh for trial, on charges preferred, in many instances, by negroes and irresponsible white men, worse than negroes.

Over one thousand people are taken from their labors and forced two hundred miles to testify in cases which the Radical party are the prosecutors and the white men of North Carolina the defendants.

There is not a town, village or hamlet in North Carolina, in which civil law cannot shield itself, and where the presence of Federal soldiery is not an invasion.

We thank Mr. Grant and Mr. Akerman for this, as we thanked Mr. Holden for the last, invasion of the State, and we tell them that they are helping to bury Radicalism so deep that the hardest posterity will never be able to unearth it.—Wilmington Journal.

Carl Schurz at the Capitol.

The assemblage which heard the speech of Hon. Carl Schurz in the Hall of Representatives yesterday is variously estimated at from 1,800 to 2,000 persons. Every seat and every spot available for standing-room was filled. No audience representing more wealth, intelligence and political influence was ever gathered within the walls of the capitol.

Shortly after 11 o'clock Mr. Schurz was introduced to the audience by ex-Governor Odell S. Brown in a brief speech well worthy, in spirit and expression, of the occasion. The distinguished Senator from Missouri was received with enthusiasm and was listened to for two hours with the profoundest interest and attention. We did not notice that a single person left the hall from the opening to the close. After the peroration, one of the most eloquent we ever heard, the vast throng dispersed and Mr. Schurz was escorted back to the Maxwell House by the committee of reception. He will address our German fellow-citizens in their native language at the same place to-night.—Republican Banner.

Senators Sumner and Wilson Opposed to Butler.

BOSTON, September 18.—The following will appear in the Boston Journal and Daily Advertiser to-morrow morning:

The question is often asked, Where are the two Massachusetts Senators, and what are their opinions on the present crisis in Massachusetts? We are able to set this matter at rest by their authority. We have seen Senators Sumner and Wilson, and are authorized by them to say that they deeply regret and deplore the extraordinary canvass which Gen. Butler has precipitated upon the Commonwealth, and especially the attacks which he had volunteered against the existing State government and Republican party of Massachusetts, and that in their opinion his nomination as Governor would be hostile to the best interests of the Commonwealth and the party.

☞ Nearly four hundred persons have been arrested in North Carolina within a few days past, charged with being Ku-Klux. Some of them are to be tried for murder. This is the way the Radicals intend to electioneer under the Ku-Klux bill. Thousands of men will be arrested. The jail and the gallogs will be set before those who will not agree to vote for General Grant, and in this manner the South will be governed.—Age.

BY TELEGRAPH.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, September 22.—The Southern Claims Commission will resume examination of cases October first. They have indexed 7,500 claims, aggregating to twenty million dollars. The Committee have heard six hundred cases and adjudicated on 150, but will report to Congress three hundred cases with a synopsis of evidence.

Burlingame's Chinese ministers, under the assurances from Thiers, will return to France instead of going directly home.

MARYLAND.

BALTIMORE, September 22.—The Grand Encampment has elected the following, ranking as named: J. A. Fellows, New Orleans; J. H. Hopkins, Pittsburg; Vincent L. Haribut, Chicago; Benjamin Dean, Boston; Irving M. Smith, Michigan; W. S. Patten, Mississippi; Theodore S. Parvin, Iowa.

Judge William Taylor, of Texas, is dead.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, September 22.—The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of the United States have adopted an amendment to their constitution, confining its privileges to free white men.

MASSACHUSETTS.

NEW YORK.

OSWEGO, September 22.—There was a heavy frost this morning.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, September 22.—Wolford & Shew's cotton mill at Cardington was burned—loss 150,000.

KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, September 22.—The cases against the Kentucky and Paducah Lotteries have been dismissed on the ground that the business was authorized by the laws of the Commonwealth.

UTAH.

SALT LAKE, September 22.—The Mormon Adjutant General of Militia bought from the United States one thousand stand of arms and 150,000 cartridges.

It is rumored that the grand jury will indict several members of the Mormon priesthood, including Brigham Young, for adultery.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, September 22.—Queen Victoria has the rheumatism.

Minor strikes are occurring.

Recently imported Germans are returning.

☞ American cheese is supplanting English cheese in the English market itself. During the four weeks ending September 1, 263,600 boxes of it were imported to England, amounting in weight to something over 5,000 tons. It sells there at about 51d. per pound for the fine qualities, which is 1½d. less than English cheese can be sold for; while it is said to be quite equal to English cheese in quality, flavor, and condition. Even the Dutch cheese suffer by the American competition. Six years ago the difference was the other way, and the change is owing entirely to the skill and pains of American dairymen in improving the management of their dairies.—New York Sun.

☞ There does not seem to be longer any doubt that Ben Butler is the administration candidate for Governor of Massachusetts. All the Federal patronage in the State is to be wielded with its influence in that direction. The collector of the port of Boston and the Postmaster of that city have already lead the advance, and the lesser office-holders are expected to close up the ranks. The little official patronage extended to the Boston Journal and Boston Advertiser is to be cut off. This step does not surprise any one here familiar with the influence which Butler had at the last session with Grant.—Patriot.

☞ The power of an aroused press is terrible in its grandeur. It causes tyranny to tremble, and grinds villainy to powder. Its mills, like the mills of the gods, may occasionally grind slow, but they grind exceedingly fine. Even when malice is the motive power, as was the case recently with the New York Times, it is dangerous to withstand its wrath. And how much more terrible to the evil-doer when its motives are entirely pure, and its aims are the glory of God, the good of the people, and the triumph of truth and virtue!—Enquirer.

☞ The comment of a colored preacher on the text, "It is more blessed to give than to receive," is inimitable for its point as well as eloquence: "I've known many a church to die 'cause it didn't give enough, but I never knowed a church to die 'cause it gave too much. Dey don't die dat way. Brethren, has any of you knowed a church to die 'cause it gave too much? If you do, just let me know, and I'll make a pilgrimage to that church, and I'll climb by de soft light of de moon up the moss-covered roof; and I'll stand dar, and lift up my hands to Heaven and say, "Blessed are the dead that die in de Lord!"

A NEW MODE OF DEATH.—The Russian press announce that a Russian genius has invented a new method of killing criminals which is soon to be tried in the case of a man named Nelacheff, a robber, and at one time a favorite servant of the Czar. It is to tie the man, neck and heels, throw the slack of the rope over a hook, and then twist the body around until strangulation takes place. The inventor declares that this method breaks no necks, allows of no accident, and he thinks he ought to have a reward for bringing it to the attention of the humane.—Detroit Free Press.

Mr. Walsh is the man who furnishes all the carpet-baggers with their traveling bags. He made his fortune principally since the war—his trade having immensely increased. Messrs. Porter, Platt, Stowell, Humphreys, etc., all got their carpet-bags from Mr. Walsh.—Rich. Enquirer.

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR

LIVER DISEASE and bodily ailments prevail to a greater extent than probably any other malady, and relief is always anxiously sought after. If the Liver is Regulated in its action, health is almost invariably secured. Indigestion, or want of action in the Liver, causes Headache, Constipation, Jaundice, Pain in the Stomach, Sick Headache, bad taste in the mouth, Bilious attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the Side, Chest, Limbs, and sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constipation, Piles, and a thousand other painful symptoms, are the offspring of a Disordered Liver. SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR is the best remedy that has ever been discovered for all Diseases of the Liver. It acts mildly, effectually, and thoroughly, on the Liver, Stomach, and Bowels, and can do no injury in any quantity that it may be taken. His location in every way is fine; it has been used for forty years, and hundreds of the best men and women in every section of the country will vouch for its virtues, viz:

Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, of Georgia.
Hon. Howell Cobb, of Georgia.
Gen. Joseph E. Brown, ex-Governor of Alabama.
Gen. John B. Gordon.

ATLANTA:

Subscribe to The Constitution.

Parties spending a part or the entire season at the various springs, or other summer resorts through the country, can have THE CONSTITUTION sent to them by addressing a line to this office.

A full report of the decisions of the Supreme Court is furnished to THE CONSTITUTION exclusively, by the Reporter of the Court.

To Subscribers.

Subscribers whose papers are marked with a cross will know that they are indebted to the office, and will please remit.

☞ The wheat crop of Great Britain is short, and the French crop below the average. This country can find a market for its surplus.

☞ That stupendous monument of genius and pluck, the Mont Cenis Tunnel that pierces through the Alps, is now in use. It has been traveled through in 33 minutes.

Thus does man's invention and industry triumph over nature.

☞ Of the Northern States, two, Maine and New Hampshire, have decreased in population from 1860 to 1870. Maine has gone down principally through the feature of Radical policy that has resulted in the death of our shipping interests.

So much for Radical Maine.

☞ We have received an invitation to attend the anniversary celebration of the Female Literary Society of Emory College, to be held on Friday, September the 29th. The orator is William H. La Prade, of Florida.

True to Itself.

The Grant administration is proving in every case true to itself. The vulture never violates its instincts for carrion. Grant is throwing his whole official power for Butler in Massachusetts in the gubernatorial election.

☞ Congress has invited each of the original thirteen States of the Union to send statues of two of its great men of the old times to be placed in the Capitol at Washington, in the old hall of the House of Representatives. Rhode Island sends statues of Roger Williams and the Quaker General Green. Connecticut sends statues of Jonathan Trumbull and Roger Sherman.

☞ In 1790 Georgia was the thirteenth State of the Union in population, with 82,548 people. In 1840 and 1850 it was the ninth; and in 1870 with 1,184,109, it is the twelfth. Georgia has twelve times the population in 1870 that it had in 1790, while the total population of all the States is not quite ten times now what it was then.

Personal.

We were gratified, yesterday, by a call from an old Savannah friend, Mr. William Duncan, one of the solid old citizens of that solid old city. We knew Mr. Duncan in our boyhood, and it afforded us genuine pleasure to renew acquaintance. Mr. Duncan has been spending the summer in Marietta.

We had a call the day before from the Rev. J. M. Jones, of Virginia, agent of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

State Road Rumors.

It is rumored that Attorney-General Farrow will not only be aided by Honorable B H. Hill and Judge John W. H. Underwood as general counsel in all the prosecutions against parties who have perpetrated frauds upon the Western and Atlantic Railroad, but has also secured local counsel in each county through which the road passes, deeming local counsel essential in accepting or rejecting jurors, and that Col. Lester, in Cobb; Gen. Wofford, in Bartow; Col. Dabney, in Gordon, and Col. Wash Johnson, in Whitfield and Catoosa, have been retained by him. If this be true, it looks like work.

Mr. G. W. Hinkle.

The energetic and accommodating Assistant Secretary of the State Agricultural Society, Mr. G. W. Hinkle, has again placed us under obligation to him, by sending us the premium list of the "Grand Fair at Oglethorpe Park," Atlanta, Ga., commencing October 16, 1871.—Gwinnett Atlas.

The complimentary language used above is deserved. But there is an inaccuracy in the statement, that Mr. Hinkle is Assistant Secretary of the State Agricultural Association. His incumbency of that place ceased a month or two ago, and he is now connected with the Atlanta Industrial Association, whose Fair comes off in October, at the Fair Grounds near this city.

Great Railroad Sale.

Tennessee has been investing in railroads, as Bullock wants Georgia to do. The result has been a great railroad sale that was to come off on Wednesday, the 20th, in Nashville, at 12 o'clock. The sale was to be made with a minimum price. The following are the roads and the minimum price:

Knoxville and Charleston Railroad, sixteen miles in length, $309,000. Rogersville and Jeffersonville Railroad, sixteen miles in length, $125,000. Knoxville and Kentucky, forty miles in length, $892,500. The Western North Carolina Road, of which only five miles are graded, will also be sold to the highest bidder, no minimum price having been fixed to it. Its debt, principal and interest, to the State is $448,000, but of course its sale will not realize one-tenth of that amount.

We shall give our readers the result of the sale. Georgia may learn a lesson from it.

The State Road Investigation.

We are glad to announce that the State Road investigation is progressing steadily. The books are being thoroughly examined by the competent committee in charge of them, and we have great confidence in desirable results.

As we have often said the administration of the State Road under Radical rule is a stupendous monument of folly, incompetency, fraud and corruption, and the laying bare of its dark secrets will disclose a sickening record.

We have no word to say in favor of any of the men dragged before the Courts on criminal charges. And we frankly state the finger of public suspicion points to every man connected with the corrupt concern, particularly those in high authority. Let these men rest assured that the examination will be thorough and patient. The people will be satisfied with nothing else. The press will do its duty in keeping the interest alive, and in spurring Justice to her retribution. Men are upon the track who will not weary.

A Democratic Legislature will use its limit of legislative power to probe the matter to the bottom.

Southern Population.

In 1860 the population of Georgia was 1,057,286. In 1870 it was 1,184,109. The increase has been 126,823 in the ten years, including the war. The white population in 1860 was 591,550, and the black, 465,736. The white population in 1870 was 635,926, and the black, 548,183. The increase of whites has been 47,576; of blacks 79,554; showing a greater increase of blacks over the whites of 32,081. This is due probably to the white losses in the war.

The aggregate population of the Confederate States in 1860 was 8,726,644; in 1870, 9,484,386; an increase in the ten years of 760,842. This increase per cent. is 8.71. The increase per cent. for the ten years, from 1850 to 1860, was 25.52, showing that the rate of increase of 16.80, or two-thirds.

The black population of the Confederate States in 1860 was 3,632,726; in 1870, 3,969,032; or an increase of 306,306 in the ten years. This shows a rate per cent. of increase of 8.43. The whites in the Confederate States have therefore increased less than one-half of one per cent. more than the blacks in spite of the war losses, which were confined principally to the whites.

The Northern States had an increase per cent. of white population from 1860 to 1870 of 27.70 or 18.99 more than the whites of the Confederate States. The increase of blacks at the North, owing to a heavy emigration from the South has been 50 per cent. against 12 or 13 per cent. for the two previous decades.

The negroes have had a wonderful impulse to go North and locate. The District of Columbia has reaped a wealthy harvest of ebony accessions to the population. The larger portion of the blacks have gone to the States north of the Ohio. New York and Pennsylvania have less of these black accessions, also Maryland and Delaware.

The greatest increase of population in the last ten years in the Confederate States has been in Texas, of 214,864; the next in Tennessee, of 148,719; the next in Georgia, of 126,823; the smallest increase in South Carolina, of 1,838.

In the border States the greatest increase was in Missouri of 539,383; the next in Kentucky of 303,827.

The greatest white increase in the Confederate States has been in Texas, of 143,809. The greatest black increase has been in Georgia, of 79,444. The smallest black increase has been in South Carolina, of 3,494.

In Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky and Missouri the blacks have decreased. Kentucky, in 1860, had 236,167 blacks; in 1870, only 222,210, or a loss of 13,957.

The following States have white majorities of general population: Alabama, 46,874; Arkansas, 239,977; Florida, 4,368; Georgia, 93,784; North Carolina, 288,820; Tennessee, 613,788; Texas, 311,225; Virginia, 199,188.

In this connection it may not be irrelevant to state the fact that the Southern States with negro majorities, Louisiana, Mississippi and South Carolina, have gone squarely with the Northern Democracy in the movement of burying "war issues" from imperative necessity. Ground down by black dynasties, ruined by carpet-bag misrule, their only chance for redemption lies in a policy that will conciliate the black sentiment and win the black judgment to favor a better, more intelligent and purer administration of State affairs. To run the canvass on a platform that seeks the deprivation of suffrage from the negro, is simply to invite unceasing defeat.

In States like Florida, where the white disfranchisement has brought about the same pernicious result of black supremacy, the same programme has been adopted. Virginia has reaped the fruits of this policy in the utter rout of the Radical faction. As a fact, these Southern States may be expected to throw their influence with the Democracy of the Northern States under Radical rule, in getting war issues sepulchred out of sight, to secure a return to the good old constitutional method of administering the national government, and to bring about a downfall of imperialistic Radicalism.

The abominable governments of these negro-dominated Southern States—the fruits of Radicalism—form one of the most damning charges in the indictment of the Radical party. One of the strongest parts of Mr. Doolittle's great speech, to which we referred yesterday, related to the Radical misgovernment of these States.

Another strong, grave reason why we would have our people stay quiet while this momentous effort of the Northern Democracy is going on to get the blinding war-issues buried in their local contests now progressing, is also to enable these crucified sister Southern States to re-erect the altars of good government, and be in a position to give material aid in the great National contest of 1872, in the re-establishment of constitutional law.

Every blow at the new move of settling war-issues, rebounds upon them and retards their day of redemption.

In the light of facts now so patent, we urge that every consideration of good judgment and right feeling prompts us to seek Democratic unity, and to refrain from everything than can cripple our Northern friends, or injure the prospects of our sister States of the South under Radical domination.

Better pursue "masterly inactivity."

The Atlanta Sun.

We perceive that our city contemporary, the Atlanta Sun, has made a wise move in raising its price of subscription to ten dollars for the Daily, and two dollars for the Weekly. In explanation of the change, the proprietors say:

"When we took charge of the Sun four months ago, we fixed a very low subscription price on it—aiming to make it the cheapest paper in the State. We regret to announce that our terms were fixed too low. After a four months trial, we find that the price of our Daily is below the cost of printing it; and the club rates for our Weekly have also been below cost."

The movement is a sensible one. We have long been convinced from our own experience that our neighbor was running too cheap a schedule. With the price of paper and ink, the cost of composition, and the innumerable expenses, including rent, labor, interest on capital invested, wear and tear, fuel, light, etc., are considered, ten dollars a year for a daily is just as little as can be charged with anything like a moderate profit.

South Carolina Crucifixion Disappointed.

Everybody knows how the Radicals have been triggering to put a part of South Carolina, under martial law. Spartanburg and York counties were selected for the crucifixion. John Scott, Senator from Pennsylvania and Chairman of the sub-committee that went to Carolina to look into the Ku-Klux horrors, reported a general condition of Ku-Klux piracy in these two counties. The report was absolutely falsified by unimpeachable testimony, and Scott has had to swallow his official slanders on a peaceful community made for partisan purposes.

Bonner.

Bonner reiterates his offer of $100,000 for the horse that will perform Dexter's feat of trotting a mile in 2:22½ minutes to a road wagon and driver weighing 319 pounds. There must be no skipping or breaking gait, but a genuine, unadulterated, unbroken trot, after the fashion of Dexter; or Bonner says he will pay $10,000 to see the thing done. It makes no difference whether the horse is spavined, foundered, broken-winded or blind, Bonner will plank down the $100,000 for him.

Democratic Division.

In the late discussions going on among the Democrats, we have regretted to see a disposition to personalities, that must be damaging to the cause of truth, and that is greatly to be deprecated.

Epithets seem to have been bandied too freely, and improper aspersions upon motives have been made in very bad taste. All this sort of thing is comfort to the enemy. Let us hope that it will cease, and the discussion, if it must continue, be conducted with dignity and politeness.

Those opposed to the new movement have untruthfully ascribed a proclivity to Radicalism to those in favor of it. As both have a common aim, and as there is no possible motive Radical leaders have party success to prompt advocacy of the movement, while there is everything of sectional prejudice to induce opposition to it, we deprecate such a charge as alike unnatural and unjust. We certainly admire the spirit of those men who thus dare to take unwelcome positions for duty.

Those favoring the new movement derisively apply the epithet of "Bourbons" to those opposing, and accuse them of wanton destructiveness. While we think that interference with the programme of our Northern friends in their local contests is untimely and unwise, yet we do thoroughly justice to the patriotism and devotion to principle of those who stand to their ideas of right, regardless of policy. We have been proud of the resolute and exalted position of the Georgia Democracy. And our very confidence in that Democracy leads us to trust to its integrity and its knowledge of and devotion to right, and for the present forego discussion that is misconstrued, and to cease an agitation, that at this juncture, is doing harm to our only friends.

Party unity is the need of the hour. The South can afford to omit pressing her views on the country at this time. Her silence concedes no wrong. We believe that the local contests North will evolve a platform upon which the good men, North and South, can unite in 1872, for the defeat of Centralism.

We know that the utterances of some of our Southern Democrats are being used against the Democratic cause North, and in the face of this fact, we simply urge a sensible silence. The time is not ripe for an impartial fair hearing upon some of the gravest issues of the day. Let us not prejudice the cause of right by premature agitation. Let us be patient for a while and allow the clouds of passion and prejudice to roll away from the Northern mind, that is to decide the issues of constitutional liberty.

We are too impatient for a great reform. Revolutions of sentiment are slow. The cause of right must be wisely and patiently advocated by its champions. We cannot do all in a moment. In the meantime we can do a great work of building up our material prosperity, and thereby gaining independence and consequent power.

But above all things let the friends of constitutional law cease their bickerings; and unite their great energies and efforts against the common foe.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, September 21.—Synopsis of the Weather Report for the Past 24 Hours.—The area of high barometer, which was Wednesday afternoon over Wisconsin and Lake Superior, has moved Southeast and East into Pennsylvania and New York. The low pressure in Georgia is probably now East of Florida. North and Northwestwrly winds have prevailed in the North and Eastern States with double strength during the day. Northerly winds in the gold States, Northeast winds with cloudy weather on the Atlantic, and brisk Southeast winds with falling barometer, now prevail West of Michigan and Indiana. Clear weather is everywhere reported except on the South Atlantic coast.

PROBABILITIES.—An area of very low barometer probably exists north of Nebraska, after having apparently passed over Oregon on Wednesday morning, following the barometer with increasing winds from the southeast and southwest are probable for Friday morning from Lake Huron and Superior to the Missouri River, easterly winds for the lower lakes, and pleasant weather in the Atlantic and Gulf States.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, September 21.—Samuel J. Tilden, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, was instituted to-day. Being asked if what is here entitled the ring is absolutely devoid of strength in the country, Mr. Tilden replied: I do not think it has any solid strength. I told Mr. Connolly, when he first sought an interview with me on last Friday, to ask my advice, that he might as well make up his mind that as a political power, and all others connected with the transactions, which had excited the public indignation had ceased to exist. My opinion is, that the fall must carry down the organization which these men control; in other words the Democratic party of the city and county must be re-organized by an edict of the Democratic party of the State. The Democratic party of the Nation consists of four millions of freemen, of the State consists of four hundred and fifty thousand citizens; of the city, more than 100,000. These vast masses of Democrats can never consent that the sole result of their existence should be that half a dozen men might enrich themselves by public plunder, or that when just arraying themselves for a national and State battle, they should be impeded and dishonored by offenses of a small knot of local leaders.

The Committee of Seventy this evening, resolved to ask District Attorney Garvin for permission to appeal, by counsel, in the examination and prosecution before Judge Dowling, in the case of Hagerty, Balch and Mrs. Hagerty, charged with stealing the vouchers from the Comptroller's office, and appointed Wm. C. Barrett as such counsel.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, September 21.—The International Congress commenced in London to-day. Delegates from Italy, Spain, France, Belgium, Germany, and Switzerland are present. Carl Maix presided. The object of the meeting is to arrange for immediate action on the Continent.

FRANCE.

VERSAILLES, September 21. — President Thiers has been present by King Amadeus of Spain, with an order of Golden Fleece.

M. Thiers held a lengthy interview with Herr Von Arnim, on the subject of the delayed treaty between France and Germany.

Rochefort's trial has been concluded and he was sentenced by the Court Martial to transportation to the penal colony for life.

PRUSSIA.

BERLIN, September 21.—Odo Russell, the newly appointed British Ambassador to the German Empire, has arrived, and will shortly be officially presented to the Emperor.

The German Reichstag will meet on the 15th of October.

MASONIC.—The several Commanderies of Knights Templar of Baltimore have perfected arrangements for their brethren at the Grand Triennial Convocation of the United States, and the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, which convenes here on Monday next. A number of eminent Knights have already arrived, and several thousand will reach the city by to-morrow. From advices received, it will be the largest assemblage of Knights ever convened in the United States. Special trains leave Cincinnati to-night, over the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, with Knights from Louisville, Memphis, Lexington, Springfield, Jacksonville, Illinois, and other points, number about one thousand, who will arrive to-morrow evening. Arrangements have been made for the accommodation of Knights from Washington, and special trains will run between Washington and this city daily during the Convocation. Age.

☞ California fruit growers are congratulating themselves upon the success of their season, and the excellent prices they obtain for the crops in New York and other Eastern markets. One orchardist, of Yolo county, recently sent three car loads of Bartlett pears eastward, by the Pacific railway, of which one-half were disposed of at Chicago, and the other half in New York. They went through in good condition. Five hundred boxes were sold in New York in one day, realizing $6 50 per box, and the shipper netted some $4,000 on the speculation. These facts are very encouraging to California pear growers, and we cannot, therefore, wonder that they propose to follow the example of their enterprising Yolo countryman, and go into the business on a large scale.—Patriot.

☞ A medical student under examination being asked the different effects of heat and cold, replied: "Heat expands and cold contracts." "Quite right; can you give an example?" "Yes, sir; in summer, which is hot, the days are longer; but in winter, which is cold, the days are shorter."

[CONDENSED FOR THE CONSTITUTION.]

Carefully prepared estimates, made by a large planter on the Alabama River, of the cotton crop, think that the present crop may reach two and a quarter millions of bales.

Experience testifies that with early sowing, care in selecting seed, and in the good preparation of the land, oats will seldom be seriously injured by rust, and will prove a profitable crop.

The farmers of Northeast Georgia are devoting more land and labor than usual in the raising of hay and clover. Barley patches, clover lots, grass fields and three or four good mares, from which to raise a colt or two every year, will aid to lead to comforts.

The circular of Smith, Edwards & Co., of Liverpool, holds out encouragement to planters. Rains and storms, and insects, may cut short the cotton crops; and this will cause the receipts to be not equal to the demand, consequently a high price will prevail here on cotton, as well as money gamblers, and THE CONSTITUTION advises farmers to sell only a sufficiency of cotton to meet their "promises to pay," and then hold up the remainder of their crop for good prices. They ought to get them, and will if prudent.

A CARD TO OIL BURNERS.

BEING the manufacturers of more than four fifths of the Kerosene Oil used in Atlanta and vicinity, (as well as through the entire South,) we think best to inform our customers that the recent inspection of oil in Atlanta (reported below Government fire test) either do not refer to our brand, or are incorrect, or are fraudulent.

We know our business as manufacturers, and shall stand behind our products at all times. We sell no oil which will not bear PROPER inspection, and hence are not to be alarmed, and we defy any one, and every one, in law or out of law, in business competition or out of it, whether from Georgia or New York, to establish any just claim against our oil.

We shall continue to sell through our agents, Messrs. Carley, Duck & Co., of Atlanta, a better quality of Kerosene, and for lower prices, than any other Refinery in the United States can afford, and the doors of all our warehouses, whether in Louisville, Nashville, Memphis, New Orleans, Mobile, or Atlanta, are always open to Inspectors, whether appointed by City, State, or United States, each of which In

For advertisement of G. S. Ozmore, administrator, of administrator's sale, in DeKalb county, on the first Tuesday in November.

COOL AND CLOUDY.—Yesterday and last night was cool and cloudy. Winter suits were in demand and fires comfortable.

POPULAR.—Our young friend John L. Trimble, Clerk at Phillips & Crew's book store, is the most popular clerk in the city.

FINE PAINTING.—We saw yesterday at Mr. J. N. Fountain's, a fine painting of our esteemed fellow-citizen, Gen. Austell.

CIGARS.—C. D. Smith, at the Tuff Exchange, has received a large stock of imported cigars which need puffing. Go and puff them.

W. Y. HOLLAND.—Our young friend, W. Y. Holland is connected with the firm of T. M. Horsley & Bro., hatters, in the Kimball House.

BRASS BAND.—The city brass and string band has been reorganized, with Prof. Hansel as director. Mr. Phillip Schramm is a member of the band.

HOSE CARRIAGE FOR ATLANTA.—We noticed on board the steamer Tonawanda, on yesterday, a fine four-wheeled hose carriage for an Atlanta fire company.—Savannah News.

KEROSINE OIL.—The attention of oil burners is directed to the card of Chess, Carley & Co., in another column. They invite inspection, and claim that their oil is above fire test. Read the card.

SOMEBODY GIVE IT.—In the list of premiums for our Fair we see none for brick. We trust that the brickmakers will offer a special premium for the best brick.

GENERAL TICKET AGENT.—Mr. J. H. Porter, the General Ticket Agent at the Union Passenger Depot, keeps his office open from 5 o'clock, A. M., until eleven o'clock P. M.

CAPTAIN JOHN MILLEDGE, JR.—We learn that Captain John Milledge, Jr., has been retained for the prosecution of parties charged with defrauding the State by frauds on the State Road.

JOB PRINTING.—JOB PRINTING.—THE CONSTITUTION Book and Job Printing Establishment has facilities for doing all kinds of commercial and book work. Having the very best of workmen employed, satisfaction will be invariably given, if possible. Prices moderate.

HAD A FIT.—A negro woman, arraigned before Justice Lyles yesterday for some offense, had a fit on the sidewalk in front of his office, and had to be brought to by the application of several buckets of cold water in order that she might be carried to jail.

IN STYLE.—A young married couple went down the Georgia Road a few evenings since. The happy bride groom wanted to engage the bride chamber on Pale's Drawing Room Coach from our clever friend Lacd.

A PRACTICAL SUGGESTION.—It is suggested that as both Gov. Bullock and Gov. Brown are out of town, that Gov. Bard being the only Governor left, be installed and inaugurated. Will the Bard, be Governor ad interim or ad infinitum?

MONTPELIER FEMALE INSTITUTE.—This old and popular institution of learning, near Macon, has been in existence thirty years, and is yet vigorous and prosperous. Rev. John T. Pryse is the Rector. Its merit as an institution of learning has long been acknowledged, and is fully established.

HO! FOR BALTIMORE.—Both lines, Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta, and by way of Branchville selling tickets to the Baltimore Convention at one rate. Passengers pay full fare going—will be returned free on presentation of certificate signed by the presiding officer that they were delegates to the Convention. J. A. ROBERTS, General Agent.

CARPETS.—Messrs. Kendrick & Son, at their Carpet Emporium on Marietta street, have received their fall stock of new carpets, unrivalled in beauty and style. Their stock of rugs, mats, floor oil cloths, window shades, etc., is not to be excelled in the city. We take pleasure in calling attention to their fine stock.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.—HON. JOHN ERSKINE, JUDGE, PRESIDING.—Colonel Peeples yesterday morning concluded his argument for the defense in the Simms case. It was an able, eloquent and convincing effort. He was followed by General Gartrell in one of his ablest and most powerful speeches, also for the defense. United States District Attorney, John D. Pope closed in a terse and logical argument for the prosecution. The jury returned in a short time a verdict of "not guilty," a result which we predicted yesterday morning.

Rev. J. S. Murrow who, has been laboring as Missionary among the Indians in the West for fourteen years, reached our city on Tuesday afternoon, in rather feeble health. His work among the red men has been marked by great success. Mr. Murrow is under the patronage of the Rehoboth (Baptist) Association of Georgia, and has been well sustained by that body, and is greatly beloved by them.

MAJOR CAMPBELL WALLACE.—The Selma (Ala.) Times of the 21st says:

"Major Campbell Wallace, the distinguished and most successful railroad manager, reached the city last evening. There is no man in the South more widely known than Major Wallace, and none enjoying a greater share of the public confidence. He is, as we learn, in fine health. He comes on a visit to his son, Captain Charley Wallace the efficient and popular General Superintendent of the Alabama Central Railroad."

THE EQUITABLE.—The Equitable has become the leading life assurance company of the world. Sum assured (new business) for the year 1870 over forty million dollars—being nearly seven millions more than any other American company, according to the Insurance Times, extra, December 1st, 1870. Cash dividends 1870 over one million dollars. Death claims paid for the same period over one million dollars. Messrs. Ansley & Stacy are general agents, in Kimball House, corner Pryor and Wall streets.

SIMMONS' MAJORITY.—Official returns of the election in the Twenty-second Senatorial District, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Hon. Thos. J. Speer, held September 13, 1871:

SHARP & FLOYD'S LIVE JEWELRY STORE. Last night the brilliancy of the Live Jewelry Store caused us to drop in and take a peep at its beauty. The shelves and show cases were glittering with diamonds and gems, solid silver-ware and other articles. This energetic firm has had recently put up a show case on each side, forty-eight feet long and twelve feet high, of solid black walnut, with French plate glass, lined with velvet. These cases were drawn, designed and built by Longly & Robinson, at a cost of $2,000. The Live Jewelry Store is the handsomest in the South.

Messrs. Sharp & Floyd has recently received two cases of gold watches and one of silver watches, which for beauty have never been excelled.

The array of solid silver ware, fine clocks, etc., cannot be excelled. The display of diamonds is unequalled in the South. On last Monday this house sold $2,000 worth of diamonds to one gentleman. Messrs. S. & F. have been elected jewelers for the Georgia State Fair, Atlanta Industrial Association, and twenty-four county Fairs this season.

Pending the argument of this cause, Court adjourned till 10 o'clock, A. M., to-morrow.

GOLDEN WORDS.—The Local of the Columbus Enquirer indulges in the following sound and sensible remarks which we commend to the earnest attention of our citizens:

Although we do not profess to be a statistician, common sense tells us that cotton bought to be manufactured where produced, thereby saving the great losses in waste and transportation, the people of this section have so long relied upon agriculture exclusively, that they are slow to recognize the advantages of a diversity of labor, or to anticipate the immense wealth which must flow to them when they shall become manufacturers, as well as producers of the great staple. The fact that of the 1,100,000 bales of cotton consumed in the United States, only 30,000 bales are consumed on the soil where grown, should open the eyes of our people to this great subject. If the North can grow rich after transporting our cotton bags a thousand miles, converting them into cloth, and sending the product back here for sale, why cannot we execute the manufacturing process here, wear cheap clothes and derive from the outside world a profit for the surplus?

We have ample water power to run all the factories that will be necessary to consume the cotton crops of Georgia, and cheap labor can be procured in abundance—if not here, from the Old World. There are now no negroes to be bought with the surplus funds of our planters, and we think the very best investment that can be made is in factory stocks. If the capital is here to carry out these grand designs, let it be so used; if not, let it be invited from abroad.

A HINT TO OUR CITY FATHERS.—Recent experiments in England upon the value of the sewage of cities upon farms are favorable to the irrigation of the country with the drainings from the cities. Reports have been received from some two hundred towns. An analysis of drains shows that the air in them is less bad than was supposed, and that the smells are more disagreeable than harmful. The belief is that the crops of sewage-irrigated farms are not in any way injurious to animals feeding on them, and that no peculiar diseases are engendered thereby. Experiments have now been begun upon pigs fed upon the products of such farms, and upon others fed on unsewage products, which will settle this point. The sewage-irrigated farms yield surprising crops both in amount and value.

How much wealth is lying dormant in our streets that might be utilized had we a complete system of sewerage.

A TRUTH TO BE CONSIDERED.—In the weekly expenses of a newspaper there is scarcely an appreciable difference through the year. The business is conducted necessarily on the cash system. The required material can only be had for cash. The employees must have cash for their labor or their means of support fails them. The dues to the paper are in small sums, and if they be not collected, the paper is forced into a wrong to its employees or in suffering a wrong itself. Five dollars paid to a newspaper helps to feed more people than the same amount applied in any other calling.

OAK HALL CLOTHING STORE.—Choice, ready-made clothing and gentlemen's furnishing goods can be had at the Oak Hall Clothing Store, M. & J. Hirsch, 41 Whitehall street.

AUDUBON'S GREAT WORK.—"The Quadrupeds of America" is on exhibition at Phillips & Crew's. This is the only copy known to be for sale. A rare opportunity is, therefore, offered to secure a work that cannot be duplicated.

OVER-DOCTORED.—Without any disrespect to the members of the medical profession, a profession honored by all thinking men, it is only just to say that they are too thick on the ground. The consequence is that the community is doctored over much. When nature needs only the gentle stimulant and alterative, which is to be found in all parts of the country as a reliable medicine, under the name of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, she is not unfrequently dosed with a dozen prescriptions, all experimental, from the Pharmacopœia. This is an evil, and proves that the practice of medicine is far from being at all times a healing art. At this period of the year, when the fall of the leaf indicates that decay has seized upon the vegetable kingdom, many harassing diseases are prevalent. Chief among these may be mentioned intermittent fever and bilious remittent. The exhalations arising from decomposing vegetation, and the heavy dews and fogs, are very apt to generate these complaints. The wisest policy is to protect the system by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters at the commencement of the fall. Much suffering may thereby be avoided. But if the disease has already begun, its periodical visitations may readily be checked and broken up by this active, yet harmless, vegetable tonic.

But be on your guard against the charlatans who are attempting to palm off, under various names, unwholesome compounds, which they pretend to compare favorably with the great national elixir, which has long since swept more formidable opposition from the field. Bear in mind that every bottle of genuine Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is authenticated by a splendidly engraved label, and a fac simile of the sign manual of the firm. Put up in bottles only, and cannot be obtained in bulk. sep19—d6od6i&w1t

ANNOUNCEMENT EXTRAORDINARY.

A little less than one year ago, when this Grand Enterprise was organized in Atlanta, Georgia, many people predicted failure in its infancy; but the unprecedented success attending it exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the originators, and proved the error of their judgment. No exhibition of the kind ever had such a brilliant popularity. Neither labor nor money has been spared to make it the most expensive and choice exhibition in the world, and the thousands of delighted audiences applauding the feats of the different artists have served to stimulate the Management to even greater efforts. Throughout the Middle States and New England, the Dominion of New Brunswick, Governor Prince Edward Island, Cape Breton and Nova Scotia, but one voice has been heard—and that from the press and public as to the intrinsic merits of this mammoth enterprise.

Messrs. Wootten & Haight feel an excusable pride in thus referring to their repeated triumphs and praise of the world which further serves to mark the character and superiority of this first-class arenic and zoological combination.

RAINBOWS OF GOLD.

When I was a child I was solemnly told,
When the rainbow appeared in the sky,
That under its foot was a bushel of gold,
That any could get would they try;
So I ran where the splendor came down to the ground,
But it fleeted as fast as I ran,
And with all of my search it was nothing I found;
Yet I'm doing the same as a man.

There's the rainbow of love, when the affections are young,
The brightest, we think, of the lot;
We follow to find it a thing of the tongue,
Or a foolish abstraction of thought.
There's the rainbow of fame, with its amaranth crown;
We chase it in anxious strife;
We reach where its foot so enticingly came down,
And find—we have wasted a life.

Hope's rainbows are ever abroad in the air,
Alluring us focus to pursue;
We follow and follow, and find nothing there
Save a sprinkle of glittering dew.
Earth's rainbows of promise, so fair to the sight,
Are but fictions, at best, of the mind;
The rr gleams give at most unsubstantial delight—
They fade and leave nothing behind.

Then what of the rainbow that gleams beyond death;
The promise hereafter? Who is there can tell
If, after the parting of body and breath,
He is sure under that rainbow all will be well?
Can he certain it is the last bow to allure,
The one that stoops down on the bushel of gold—
The gold he at last shall possess? Who is sure?
Alas! 'tis a secret we cannot unfold.

General Wade Hampton on the Situation.

The following letter, addressed by General Hampton, to the editor of the Southern House, is published in that paper in its issue of the 19th:

COLUMBIA, September 9, 1871.

My Dear Sir: The Southern Home of the 5th instant, containing your editorial on the policy to be pursued by the Southern States in reference to the next National Democratic Convention, reached me a day or two ago, and along with it the letter in which you were kind enough to ask my opinion on this question. Though I cannot flatter myself that any opinions I may entertain can have the weight your partiality would induce you to attach to them, I most cheerfully comply with the request contained in your letter, because it is only by consultation and discussion among ourselves that we can hope to act judiciously and harmoniously.

It would perhaps be sufficient to say that I concur fully in the views you have expressed, as the impropriety of the South taking any part in the approaching Convention; but, in deference to your wishes, I give briefly the reasons which have induced this conviction in my mind.

1st. The Southern Delegates in a National Convention could exercise no influence in shaping the policy, making up the issues, or selecting the candidates for the next contest, without seriously injuring the prospect of a Democratic triumph. That this would inevitably be the case, is proven by the result of the last Democratic Convention, where the very presence of Southerners was used to prejudice the action and to defeat the candidates of our party.

2d. If the Southern Delegates could not with propriety exert any influence in the Convention, while their mere attendance in it might result in infinite mischief to the Democratic party, it is surely the part of wisdom to refrain from participating in the deliberations of the Convention.

3d. The Northern Democracy will have to bear the burthen of the fight in the next President'al contest, and it is only right that they should choose the field and select the standard-bearers.

These, in brief, are the reasons, in conjunction with those you have already so ably advanced, that have convinced me that our true policy is to abstain altogether from all participation in the next National Democratic Convention. Of course, in pursuing this policy, we should take care to have our conduct and motives fully understood by our Northern friends. We should say to them, that we are actuated solely by the desire to promote the success of Democratic principles and Democratic candidates; that we wish to leave them free to act, and the best interests of our party demand; and that we pledge them in the contest all the aid we can give, only asking them to give us a good platform, and as acceptable candidates, as they can.

When the platform is announced, and the candidates selected, the Democracy of the South can ratify the action of the National Convention, and they can use every effort to secure the success of the party; for on its success depends the existence of the Southern States.

If our people concur in this policy, arrangements should be made in each State to carry it out fully and effectually. Should they not concur, we must, in any event, act in perfect accord and with entire harmony.

Too much is at stake for us to differ amongst ourselves, and I for one am willing to yield my own opinions for the success of any plan which will tend to save the South from ruin.

I am very respectfully and truly yours,
WADE HAMPTON.

To General D. H. Hill.

Mrs. Fair in Jail—Her Personal Appearance.

Here Mrs. Fair proceeded to relate some particulars in the domestic life of the Judge, which were not particularly complimentary to him, and which, from her point of view, went to show that the judicial bench is not beyond the reach of a feminine influence whose origin is not of a character greatly above that emanating from the level of courtesanship.

It was now that I began to discover that the face had other characteristics which were latent when her countenance was in repose. Now and then, when she became warm with the recital, the calmness of her blue-gray eye became lightened with a steely glow that possessed a strong magnetic power In rest, her face was scarcely above commonplace; in action, faint blushes lightened across her cheek, her eye deepened and glowed with a strange fascination, and her smile seemed an emanation, a centre of magnetic forces. I saw now the fascination of the face.

HER APPEARANCE

as I saw it during the delivery of the foregoing remarks. I saw a woman leaning easily back in her chair, whom I should judge to be a trifle above the medium height. She wore a wrapper of some inexpensive material, but cheerful in color, which, although belted at the waist, somewhat mystified her form, so that I could not see much save that she is apparently slender at the waist, with a bust of a breadth and depth that are well proportioned, and relieve her tall figure from anything like spindleness or angularity. Her dress, like the wrapper, was of some comfortable but unostentatious material, and was confined well up to her throat by a simple brooch of no particular pattern that I now recall. Her neck rises squarely from her shoulders, is neither delicate nor barley, and supports a head of the average size in women. The face and head are those of a moderate blonde. The complexion is fair, without being of a dazzling white, the eyes are a blue-gray, the hair plenteous and of a hue that in the sunlight would be golden, but which in a subdued light, is flaxen with a tone of brown. Her head is well poised, with a round, intelligent forehead, regular and well-defined eyebrows, smooth cheeks which recede from the forehead as if in harmony with the design of an oval face, but which is interrupted by the chin which widens somewhat and thereby conflicts with the finer indications of the face above. The mouth is composed of lips of reasonable fulness that are womanly without being voluptuous, that open squarely rather than with those curves characteristic of the paintings of women, and which, when open, reveal rows of white and not perfectly regular teeth, and which also, when drawn back in a smile or in conversation, corrugate into wrinkles and dimples that portion of the face lying to the right and just below the mouth. So much for details. Her general appearance, if one should notice her in the street, would be that of a married lady about 27 years of age, and who would seem a woman of intelligence, of fair attractions, and of moderate self-possession. In fine, at a cursory glance, she would be placed as the wife of a merchant, and as a woman who had polished herself by much contact with the world. In the course of our conversation there came into view qualities in her features which will be noted at the time of their occurrence.—Chicago Times.

☞ At a recent meeting of the "Woman's Christian Association" of Newark, New Jersey, a committee was appointed to ascertain the number and social condition of the women at work in the factories and shops of that city, and whether they have comfortable homes. It is reported that the committee was appointed particularly to examine into the condition of the large number of women and girls who are employed many hours at starvation wages at the extensive manufactory of Cornelius Walsh, the Radical candidate for Governor.—Age.

Savannah Morning News.

THE SAVANNAH MORNING NEWS is now in the Twenty-first year of its existence, and is acknowledged by the Press as one of the LEADING DAILIES IN THE SOUTH.

As a news gather, the MORNING NEWS is energetic and enterprising—up with the times in every particular. It is carefully and vigorously edited, and is emphatically a JOURNAL OF TO-DAY.

In politics it is earnestly and hopefully Democratic and is an unswerving advocate and disciple of the principles of '76.

It is printed in the interests of the people of the South, of Georgia, and of Savannah.

The current local news of Georgia and Florida is made a specialty; the commercial department is full and reliable; and the general make-up of the paper is fresh, sparkling and piquant. Many reading matter is given in each issue than is to be found in any other daily journal south of Louisville or east of New Orleans.

The Morning News has a circulation equal to that of any newspaper printed in Georgia, and double that of any other Savannah journal—thus affording one of the best advertising mediums in the country.

Money sent by the Southern Express Company may be forwarded at our risk and at our expense.
Address J. H. ESTILL,
Savannah, Georgia.

THE WEEKLY NEWS,

The WEEKLY NEWS is a large, neatly printed, carefully edited journal, each issue containing an average of

THIRTY COLUMNS OF READING MATTER.

It commends itself particularly to those who do not enjoy the facilities of a daily mail, and who desire to have the current news of the day in a cheap, compact and reliable form.

The WEEKLY is made up with great care and discrimination, and contains the cream of the Daily edition of the Morning News. Its extremely low price, its careful make-up, and the large and varied amount of reading matter which it contains, commend it to all who desire a first-class family newspaper.

The Weekly will be sent one year to any address for $3 00; six months, $1 00.

Money sent by the Southern Express Company may be forwarded at our risk and at our expense.
Address J. H. ESTILL,
Savannah, Georgia.

THE TRI-WEEKLY MORNING NEWS.

THE TRI-WEEKLY MORNING NEWS presents all the best features of the Daily and Weekly editions, and is made up with an eye to the wants of the farming community of Middle, Southern and Southwestern Georgia. It contains the Latest Commercial and Telegraphic Intelligence up to the hour of going to press, and the very large circulation to which it has attained convinces us that it fills a high place in public estimation.

The Tri-Weekly News will be sent to any address one year for $6 00; six months, $3 00.

Money sent by the Southern Express Company at our risk and expense. Address J. H. ESTILL,
Savannah, Georgia.

It is the most simple and easily regulated Machine now in use.
The shuttle gives an even tension from the full to the empty bobbin.
Makes the most durable, elastic and smooth stitch.
Stitching the softest muslin without drawing it into feed, and from that to heavy cloth or leather without changing the tension, making it capable of a greater range of work than any other machine made.
We use the straight needle, and it will do more and finer work than the curved needle.
The work moves from you instead of sideways, which is much easier to manage.
For speed and ease of operation it is unequaled.
Our machinery is all protected from dust.
Our cording, tucker, gatherer, quilter, trimmer, fringer, binder, hemmer, braider, feller and embroidery attachments are easily used.
We have the largest stock of our own manufacture at wholesale and retail, of all colors and numbers.
We will place the Singer in your family for a trial for any length of time, and if it will not do its work as represented, we will take it back.
The sale of our Rotary Family Machine is steadily increasing, showing its popularity.
The new No. 1 Machine for Tailors and Bootmakers is the best in the market.
